GREENSBORO TELEGRAM.

VOL. VII. NO. 2. GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1900. Price Five Cents

PLOT WAS MADE IN AMERICA.

CAREFULLY PLANNED MURDER.

Twenty-four Persons Have Been Arrested as Confederates of Bresci--A Large Number of Other Murders Planned--Humbert Selected Because Italy Acted Against Anarchists.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Rome, Aug. 1—Proof has been obtained by the police that Bresci arrived from America in company with anarchists Lannor, Sassi and Quintevalle, and went first to Paris, where he had a conference with other members of the international society. The death of the King was decided upon at Paterson and was confirmed at the Paris conference. Humbert was designated as the first victim because Italy had taken the initiative in the anti-anarchist congress. Bresci was to kill the King at Monza. Failing to get a good opportunity there, others were to watch for a second chance at Ivra, near Turin, where they have been arrested. Quintevalle, when arrested at Capolineri, had photographs of five anarchists, each bearing words indicating a particular crime for which he was to be responsible, with six daggers. He also had a letter in his possession giving the rendezvous at Florence.

The new King with Queen Helena arrived as Rome this morning and will proceed to Monza this evening. The ministers met His Majesty at the railway station.

Twenty-four persons have been arrested as confederates of Bresci. One is Teresaa Brugurli, captured at Prato. He is believed to be the one who wrote the letter to Bresci from New York asking "Is all ready?" Six were arrested at Prato, the rest in Milan.

HIGH POINT READY.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

High Point, August 1—A medicine man has struck town and is holding fourth on the vacant lot adjoining the livery stable of R. F. White.

Messrs. W. R. Reaves and Sam Brown, of Greensboro, were here yesterday.

Westcott Roberson, Esq., spoke last night at Oak Hill, near here. Those who heard him speak of his speech in the highest terms. Tonight he addresses the people on the vacant lot in front of McLeod's store. Let all hear him. He will interest and do you good.

Today finds the people of this place ready for the election tomorrow, and when the votes are counted Democracy will be crowned victor with an abundance of pure white ballots.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Perry, who have been north for several days, returned last night.

Rev. M. A. Kelsey and Prof. Jno. W. Wilborn went to Salisbury last evening to hear the candidate on the Prohibition ticket for President of the United States.

Rev. L. Johnson, of Greensboro, discussed the dispensary question here last night in front of McLeod's store. A large crowd was present, and we believe Mr. Johnson made votes for the dispensary. The High Point band furnished music for the occasion.

Mr. Smith as a Campaign Orator.

Mr. John Y. Smith, Jr., of this city, who has resided in Lumberton for the past few months, is developing into a campaign orator. Though quite young, he takes a deep interest in political matters. The following from the Lumberton Argus is an extract from a report of a speech he made at a White Supremacy club meeting a few nights ago:

After Dr. Rozier had concluded they yelled "Smith," and Mr. John Y. Smith, of the office of McLean & McLean, rose and came forward Mr. Smith is a close student of politics, and speaks well. He spoke of the bad condition of North Carolina when one of her Senators is so hated by the people that he is rarely allowed to speak to his own constituents. His remarks were not revolutionary; they were practical, intelligent, to the point, and well expressed.

STILL CIRCULATING FALSEHOODS.

The Liquor League Persists in Falsely Asserting That the Dispensary People Have a Corruption Fund.

Opponents of the dispensary have industriously circulated a report to the effect that a wholesale liquor house had furnished $500 to aid the dispensary people in their campaign, and notwithstanding the fact that the assertion has been branded as a base lie, the Liquor League and its agents have not ceased to circulate the false report. A message was received from Gibsonville this morning saying that efforts were being made in that community to make capital and create prejudice against the dispensary by persons who persisted in making the false charges. The following telegram was sent to Mr. Berry Davidson in reply:

"Report that money is furnished dispensary workers by wholesale liquor dealers, or any money used corruptly, is false. All funds are from Greensboro people and used only for legitimate expenses.

"EGBERT W. SMITH."

Big Day in Burlington.

Yesterday was a big day for the people of Alamance county. A Democratic rally and barbeque drew ten or twelve thousand people to Burlington, where specches were made by Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury; W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, and Howard Foushee, of Roxboro. The procession, headed by the Gate City Band and 500 "redshirts," was fully two miles and a half long.

During the day "Stump" Ashby, of Texas, one of the imported anti-amendment speakers, addressed a crowd of negroes and a few white men in the court house at Graham.

A Dog Case.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Charlotte, August 1.—The question of whether or not a dog is enitled to a seat on the street car when the owner has paid fare for the dog will come up before Mayor McCall today.

Then the owner demanded a seat for for the animal and this the conductor objected to, and a dispute followed. The question will be decided by the mayor today.

Advertisers.

Vanstory Clothing Company has a change of ad. today in which they invite your attention to the latest in hats.

J. W. Scott & Co. advertise a fresh lot of Havenners' cakes. Get some this evening--they will be closed tomorrow.

Buys the Weekly Record.

Mr. W. M. Barber, editor and publisher of the Greensboro Patriot, has purchased the good will and subscription list of the Weekly Record, which has been published by Messrs. Reece & Elam for several years.

The Patriot is the oldest paper in North Carolina and is one of the landmarks of Guilford county. It enjoys an extensive patronage throughout Guilford and surrounding counties.

Briefs From the Wire Today.

Charles H. Hoyt, the playwright who has been confined in a sanitarium at Hartford, Conn., for some time, was released today by an order of court. His keeping will be given over into the hands of his friends.

Ex-Governor Wolcott has accepted the appointment as ambassador to Italy.

Mr. Logan's Warm Campaign.

Mr. J. A. Logan, one of United States Marshal Millikan's deputies, who resigned his position July 1st to run for the Legislature in Rutherford county, is having a warm time. Once or twice during the campaign he has found it necessary to fight, and while speaking in Rutherfordton Monday he was given the lie by a Democrat in the audience.

Mr. Logan's opponent is a preacher.

Let everybody take a hand in saving the State tomorrow.

MOVING ON PEKIN TODAY.

AN ADVANCED BASE ESTABLISHED.

From This a Sally Will be Made Upon the Capital—American, British and Japanese Forces are Taking Part in the Movement, Whether Any Others Are or Not—Boxers Gave a Viceroy Big Money to Help Them.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Tien-Tsin, July 27 via Shanghai—August 1.—The Japanese commander said tonight that the Japanese were preparing to establish an advance base almost immediately by means of the capture of Yangtsun. They will probably do this in three days. The latest news received from Pekin increases the desire that the forward movement shall be quickly made. The Japanese report fifteen thousand Chinese between Peitzang and Yangtsun, well entrenched. The Russians are preparing to advance and their transportation is almost ready. The Americans are organizing a cart train. The Japanese are preparing junks to supplement their pack trains, and the British are organizing both in a sort of junk service. The Fourteenth U. S. infantry arrived today. Caselee came today and said as soon as he had time to learn the situation he would be prepared to advance. Many documents have been found in the city showing that the Taotai viceroy and customs Taotai actively supported the attacks on foreigners and encouraged them and were liberally paid by the Boxers.

MOVED TODAY.

London, August 1.—It is announced by a news agency that a Bulletin dated at Shanghai today says the allies began the advance to Pekin this morning. It is assumed that the Americans, British, and Japanese are taking part in this movement whether the other nationalities are doing so or not. An advance base will be established probably twenty or thirty miles nearer Pekin. Here supplies will be assembled preparatory to direct stroke at the capital.

MR. WU HAS ANOTHER MESSAGE.

Washingtou, August 1.—Minister Wu took a message to the state department this morning which he received last night, which he says confirms the reports received yesterday of the safety of the foreign ministers at Pekin and deals with the measures taken by the Chinese government to insure their protection.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE.

The Bullet Wallace Caught in Asheville Was Intended for Locke Craig or Ex-Congressman Crawford.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

Asheville, July 31—Investigation of the shooting into the Democratic procession last night develops the fact that it was a deliberate attempt to assassinate Locke Craig or W. T. Crawford. They were sitting in a carriage together and the driver saw the negro point a pistol directly at the carriage. Just then J. C. Wallace spurred his horse to pass by and caught the bullet in his leg, just about the height of the occupants of the carriage. As the carriage was not surrounded by footmen or horsemen the evidence seems to warrant the belief very strongly, especially as such efforts have been made to single out Locke Craig for the hatred of the Republicans. The negro would-be assassin was recognized by two boys.

Pretoria Surrounded by Boers.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Pretoria, Aug. 1.—A proclamation issued by President Kruger says Gen. Roberts has retreated south of the Vaal river and that Pretoria is surrounded by Boers. He adds that Lady Roberts made her escape in a balloon.

Two New Residences on North Elm.

Architect O. M. Gates is engaged in preparing plans for two residences to be erected on North Elm street by Mr. David White, of the Southern Loan and Trust Company. The houses will be equipped with modern improvements and will make desirable homes.

Mr. C. W. Dudley continues qui e ill at his room at Mrs. Doak's, corn r West Washington and South Ashe streets.

The water which had accumulated in the foundation of the new city hall and market house was pumped out last night.

Democrats are urged to go to the polls tomorrow and vote early. Don't delay the matter a moment longer than is necessary.

Mr. R. D. Douglas lost his bicycle last night. He does not know whether it was stolen or whether he left it somewhere.

Chicken thieves are abroad. Mr. J. F. Aiken, who resides on North Cedar street, reports the loss of several fat young hens.

The polls will open tomorrow at sunrise and close at sunset. The sun rises shortly after 5 a. m. and sets a few minutes after 7 o'clock in the evening.

Twenty-five men were laid off at the Southern's shops at Spencer today. The men whose services were dispensed with were car repairers and helpers. The reduction in the force is said to be temporary.

S. Chowris, of Asheville, who was for some time engaged in the candy business here, has returned and will open a candy factory at 328 South Elm street. His brother will arrive and join him in a few days.

Mr. S. O. Bennett, of Winston, formerly engaged in merchandising in that place, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court at this place. His liabilities are $5,990 30; assets, $230.

RELIABLE NEWS AT LAST.

Lieut. Col. Shiba, United States Military Attache, Writes From Pekin That the Situation Was Desperate July 23rd.

Washington, July 31—Adjutant General Corbin today received a dispatch from Lieutenant Colonel Coolidge, commanding the Ninth Infantry at Tien-Tsin. it came by the way of Che Fu and is as follows:

"Tien-Tsin, July 26— The following letter of Lieutenant Colonel Shiba, military attache at the legation of Pekin, dated July 23, arrived at Tien-Tsin July 25 at 9 o'clock in the evening:

Pekin, July 22, Evening—We are all awaiting impatiently arrival of reenforcing army. When are you coming? All legations have been blockaded since the 13th of last month and since the 20th we have been attacked continually night and day by the Chinese soldiers from more than ten encampments. By a supreme effort we are defending. We are daily awaiting with the greatest anxiety arrival of re-enforcing army and if you cannot reach here in less than a week's time it is probable that we will be unable to hold out any longer. Emperor and Empress Dowager appear to be still at Pekin. Were our re-enforcements to arrive very probably they would flee to Wan Shoshan. Killled and wounded up to date—eight killed, ons captain of infantry and ambassador's attache; seven seriously wounded, the first secretary of the legation being one of 20 slightly wounded. The number of Europeans killed is 60 in all.' "COOLIDGE."

Feeling Against Oom Paul.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Pretoria, Aug. 1—The animosity of the Boers agaist Kruger grows on account of the fact that he and his officers are persuading the people that South African money is as good as Bank of England notes. As the English have not recognized this contention, many burghers have been ruined. Great misery prevails. The wives and children of the poorer Boers are almost starving.

Keep your eyes open tomorrow for traders and taitors.

WORK TOMORROW FOR WHITE SUPREMACY AND MORAL SUPREMACY.

THE RIOT WAS A BIG FARCE.

TROOPS SENT ON SQUEAL OF EDITOR.

Mr. Parker, Editor of the Smithfield Courier Seems to Have Seen Snakes and Asked Russell for Troops—The Governor Ordered out the Troops, But Was Stopped by a Vote from the Sheriff—One Negro Had Been Brick-Batted and One Man's Finger Bitten—Simmons Hears From the Civil Service Committee—Negroes for the Amendment.

Special Correspondence of the Telegram.

Raleigh, August 1.—The Raleigh Light Infantry spent last night in the armory here. It received orders at 5:30 p. m. yesterday to leave for Smithfield at 7:30 p. m. Then it went to the train, but as it was "entraining" orders came for it to return to its armory.

It looked very like "peanut politics" on the Goverhor's part. He was sending the soldiers away at the request of a private citizen, editor Parker, of the Republican paper there. Sheriff Ellington, of Johnston, had not called for them. He telegraphed the Governor that all was quiet, that the crowd had gone home, and that the first he knew of the sending of troops was from a third person.

Out of the order to the troops a plentiful crop of rumors grew; that there was a great riot at Smithfield; that 7 persons had been killed; that a Populist speaker named Teague had been stabbed; that a negro had been dragged to the woods and hanged. A sifting of these rumors late in the evening brought the news from Smithfield that one negro had been "brickbatted" for drawing a pistol, that there had been a sort of "free for all" scrimmage, and that one man's fingers were bitten.

Today State Chairman Simmons received the following letter from the civil service commission: "The commission duly received your communication of July 23, with reference to activity of federal officers in your State campaign. An earlier answer would have been made but it was expected that the affidavits to which you refer would shortly arrive. Immediately upon the receipt of these affidavits the commission will give the matter its earnest consideration."

Chairman Simmon's says the affidavits were not forwarded immediately because he had had no acknowledgement of his letter, and also because he desired to send a large batch at once; that a number are on hand and they are coming in rapidly.

Judge Ewart's very plain talk about Senator Butler was the talk of the town today. Several local Republicans declared that Ewart had expressed their sentiments exactly, and added that they intended to scratch every Populist on the ticket and also to vote for the amendment.

Some more newspaper men have arrived here, among them J. A. Hollomon of the Atlanta Journal, and W. H. Emmons of the Cincinnati Post. The latter went to Smithfield today to a great raly. He was told that some "red shirts" would be there and he was particularly anxious to see them.

The newspaper correspondents here are rushed to gll tne calls for news. There is a great demand for "red shirts." A lot of people have an idea that the "wild man from Barneo" is tame compared to "red shirts" while as a matter of fact the latter is not a disturber of the peace ar a slayer of men, but really a conservator. Everything about him is wide open.

Some of the newspaper men who came here expected no doubt to see the streets all abloom with "red shirts." Raleigh's quiet is as that of a Sunday school festival compared to the east, as a traveling man remarked today, who was just in from that section. He said that never in all his life had he seen the Democrats more confident or more determined.

Congressman Atwater came in today from a campaign tour in Vance and said that in that county the amendment will get from 300 to 400 majority and the Democratic county and legislative tickets from 300 to 800. He also says Vance and Warren will elect a Democratic senator.

The news which comes to Democratic headquarters here about Alamance is that prospects are very fine. Chatham appears to be doubtful. A gentleman from that county says it is doubtful, but declared his belief that the Fusionists did cary it they would do so by more than 200 majority.

It is the opinion at Democratic headquarter that the Charlotte Observer's figures on the vote as given last Sunday are very close to the mark, that is as to the total. Of course there will be variances in the county vote.

It is learned that Senator Pritchard who was booked to speak at Wilkesboro yesterday was not on hand. A lot of the faithful had gathered to greet him. Among the assemblage it is stated were 100 negroes, mounted, and like McGinty "dressed in their best suit of clothes." These wanted to go in the procession. The white Republicans had a conference and decided to "eliminate" the negro, so the "brother in black" was to their great grief and indignation told that they couldn't get in the procession.

It is said that in Caswell county where the negro registration has been 400 adverse to the Democrats, the registration is now 200 in their favor.

Republican Chairman Holton says that 10,000 negro voters have left the state during the past 2 years.

Senator Butler it is said, was to speak in Johnston today. He didn't go, but said he had sent a good Populist there. He stick's very close here, his route being the short one between his hotel and his headquarters in the front portion of the theatre building.

In many sections the negroes appear to care little or nothing about registering or voting. Take New Hanover, with 4,000 negro voters, where only 36 registered, and take Scotland, where only 7 registered. The negro leaders in New Hanover said three weeks before the registration closed that they did not feel any interest in the matter at all. In some sections the negro registration is very full. From some counties a good many negro men have gone North during the past two years. Several hundred have thus far gone from Wake. Some negroes here did not care to register. One negro said to a white Republican he intended to vote for the amendment. The white Republican told him to go ahead, that he himself would do the same thing. Three negroes said today they would not vote at all but at heart favored the amendment as the best thing for their race. One of them is very prominent among his race. He said he did not wish his name used, but that he was convinced the amendment was no sort of an unkindness to the negro, but quite the reverse.

MAYOR TAYLOR GETS A CLIPPING.

The Rev. William A Peaggins, Formerly of North Carolina, Preaches a Sermon in Boston, and Some One Sends a Notice to the Mayor of Greensboro.

This morning's mail brought an envelope addressed to the Mayor of Greensboro, inclosing a clipping from the Boston Herald of Monday, cut out in the shape of a shot gun. The clipping is a flaring notice, with biography, of "A New Colored Pastor," and his first sermon, in which the new pastor compared the white people of the South to one Mr. Haman, who, as is well known, got strung up on his own gallows. The notice is given herewith:

The Rev. William A. Peaggans, of North Carolina, who succeeds the Rev. W. J. Smith as pastor of the Rush A. M. E. Zion Church, Cambridge, assumed his duties in the parish yesterday, and last evening preached a sermon on the riots last week in New Orleans. The Rev. W. J. Smith, the former pastor, is now in charge of the A. M. E. Zion Church in New Bedford.

The Rev. Mr. Peaggans set forth facts to show the growing feeling of hatred of the white people of the South toward the colored people. He said the white people of the South imagined that the negroes were trying to marry into their families and be their equals socially, and that this is the root of the growing hatred. This, he said, was not true, but that the whole colored population has been judged by the conduct of one or two.

Ahasuerus, king of the Persians, issued a decree against the Jews, thinking that they were getting too much knowledge, which was leading them to be disobedient. This decree was sent forth by the secretary of the king, Haman, who died on the gallows that he had caused to be erected for the hanging of Mordecai, a leader of the Jews. The Rev. Mr. Peaggans thought that this illustrated the case in the South today and the judgment that would fall on those who are shooting and burning negroes in New Orleans.

The Rev. William A. Peaggins was born in Blairsville, S. C., in 1872 His early education was gained in that town. He graduated from Livingston College, Salisbury, N. C., in 1893. He began preaching in Greensboro, N. C. Later he became pastor of St Cyrian A. M. E. Zion Church in Raleigh. He renovated the church in such a way that now it is the finest colored church in Raleigh. While pastor of the St Cyrian Church, he studied law at Shaw University. He was ordained as an elder in Munroe, N. C., Nov. 25, 1895.

He returned to Livingston College in 1895, and took a three years' course in the classics, and then went to Greensboro, N. C., where he raised $43,000 and built the Trinity A. M. E. Zion Church. It is one of the finest edifices that the denomination has. His last pastorate was Prince Memorial Temple, Concord, N. C., where, beside his pastoral duties, he conducted a weekly paper devoted to cotton manufacturing.

The Rev. Mr. Peaggans was recently married to a school teacher of Concord, N. C. He has for some time been anxious to come to Boston to finish his law education. He intends entering Boston University in the fall as a third year student. His church work for the present will mainly consist of raising the church debt of about $3,000.

(As a debt raiser the Rev. Mr. Peaggans is a bird. The $43,000 church spoken of in Greensboro is worth about $5,000, which was contributed principally by the white people.—Telegram.)

CHRISTIAN WORKER'S CONFERENCE.

The Work of the Assembly at Mars Hill Saturday and Sunday.

Mars Hill, N. C., July 30.—The Mars Hill Conference for Christian Workers, assembled for services in the College Chapel Saturday morning at 9:45. Owing to the illness of Rev. B. W. Spilman, no Bible reading was given, and the Conference took up the next subject on the progamme, which was "The Duties of Church Officers." Rev. John Ammons presided, and the subject was discussed by brethren R. L. Moore, Rev. John Prevatt, W. R. Sams, Rev. Charles Brown, A. Lochart, Rev. A. Bradley, Rev M. A. Love, and Rev. John Ammons, after which the Conference took a recess of three hours. The afternoon service was a continuation of the discussion of the same subject, several brethren took part, and much valuable information was brought out. At eight o'clock in the evening Rev. Alfred Bradley addressed a large audience in the church.

Sunday morning, a Sunday school mass meeting was held in the church, and the lesson for the day studied. Several brethren made talks, and the service was followed by an address by Rev. A. E. Brown, on The Baptist outlook in Western North Carolina in which he showed that the outlook was never so bright and promising as at the present time. It was a strong and eloquent speech, and was enjoyed by all who heard it.

A teachers meeting was held in the afternoon, followed at eight o'clock by an address by Rev. O. E. Sams, on Temperance, in which he pointed out the evils of intemperance in a most clear and logical way. Work on the tabernacle is still progressing, Bro. Honeycutt is out again, and Bro. Spilman is improving. J. C. S.

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 1, 1900.

AT THE BALLOT BOX.

Tomorrow the people of North Carolina will speak with their ballots on the greatest and most important question that has ever come to them since the close of the war between the States. No man can afford not to do his duty. For the good of the white man, for the good of the black man, for political purity and freedom, for the advancement of civilization, for the peace and prosperity of North Carolina, for the good of all, the constitutional amendment was proposed and will be carried. There is no shadow of a doubt about its adoption. It is now a question of majority, and it is the duty of us all to increase that majority in every possible way.

Go to the polls and work. Get there early and stay late. Watch for traders and traitors. Desperate efforts are going to be made to defeat a part or all of the Legislative ticket in Guilford. Don't let it be done. Go to the polls and work for political purity and freedom, for civilization and peace, for prosperity and progress, for good government and white supremacy.

Today the Greensboro Telegram begins the fourth year of its existence. It was established three years ago by the gentleman who is now President of the company which owns the paper, and by him alone maintained for nearly three years. The Telegram has never hesitated to take the side of public questions which it deemed right and for the good of the community. It recognizes that it is a newspaper's business to be on one side or the other of public questions, and that the people have little use for a policy of carrying water on both shoulders, even if it ever were inclined to do so, for no real advantage is ever gained for a town by such a policy on the part of its newspapers. Its aim is to stand for the progress of Greensboro and it will always co-operate with any and all efforts having the good of the town as their end. It desires to see Greensboro people united, progressive and enterprising, and Greensboro second to no town in North Carolana, and towards this end it will devote its constant effort.

We are never hasty in speaking without information, hence we cannot condemn the commanders in China for not advancing upon Pekin. Perhaps they have done so today. We do not know why they have delayed so long. May be they are doing the best they can, but if they are not, their failure is criminal. It has profited little to find out that our people were yet alive unless we do something to save them.

We will take the Charlotte Observer's figures for our majority for the amendment, until the count shows more—they are 42,000.

THE LAST QUESTION

NOW TO CONSIDER

The heat and the hot words and the charges and the counter charges of the campaign for the reopening of saloons in Greensboro are now about over. There yet remains one question--it has ott been asked before--for every voter whose eyes fall upon these words, to ask himself, in the fear of God, in the consciousness of his love for his boys and his girls and his desire for their happiness, in the dry light of reason and duty, after the hot words and the heat of the campaign are about over. That question is :

Do you believe in your soul that it is best for your sons and your daughters, your neighbors' sons and daughters, for all the people of Greensboro, that bar-rooms, with all their hellish works, should be reopened in Greensboro?

If you are going, tomorrow, to vote to tenfold multiply the inducements to ruin that beset your boy, for God's sake, think well before you do it. Analyze carefully your action. Are you preparing to thus vote thorns into the pathway of your son's feet--Heaven knows he will have enough without these additions--because you think it is best for him, for you, for us all, that he should have them? Turn the searchlight of conscience and honesty upon your actions. Are you doing it for his good or for some frivolous reason that in the summing up of your life's work will be more worthless than chaff? Is it because you don't happen to like this thing or that, or is it because you are forcing yourself to believe some charge that in your inner consciousness you know is false? Is it because interested liquor men, their friends or their backers have told you countless falsehoods, frivolous as they were false? Or are you prejudiced by some insignificant thing such as the saloon advocates have made the campaign upon? Still again, are you preparing to vote to usher in ten hell-traps for your boys because you have heard the false statement that business has been hurt? If for any of these reasons you are going to become a dupe of saloon interests, then pass the remainder of your days begging forgiveness for your miserable choice. On the hand, if you intend, in voting for saloons, to vote for what you think will be a betterment of yourself and your neighbor and give your boys and girls a better opportunity to grow up into useful, sober, honorable men, and happy, cheerful women, then cast your ballot that way, and may you live to realize your awful mistake. But, for your pride in your common sense and intelligence, don't let the saloonists win your vote on any of their little miserable, nagging, irrelevant backbiting falsehoods or arguments. Be a man and vote your conscience, but for God's sake don't be taken in by the men who talk one way in one breath and another in another, who want to take care of the church by making it stop fighting the Devil, who want to foster morality by putting barrooms on every corner, and who want to increase business by manufacturing drunkards.

Rise above the petty bickerings of saloon sophists, spurn the intrigues of the liquor league, retire to the inmost recesses of your own soul and enquire why you will vote tomorrow for more liquor, more convenient liquor, more corruption for youth, more temptations for boys, more factories to make drunkards.

ONLY TWO ARGUMENTS AND THEY BOTH FAIL

With all their bickerings and silliness and crawfish tactics, the saloon advocates have proposed only two arguments against the dispensary,

But not one in favor of saloons, which will be opened immediately if the dispensary were closed.

Their immense amount of literature, their campaigning and all their efforts have proposed only two arguments against the dispensary. On both of these arguments they have been beaten. But had they won them both as against the dispensary, neither would have been in favor of saloons. These arguments were that business has been hurt, and that morality has not been increased.

THE BUSINESS ARGUMENT.

This is as pitiable as it is illogical. Pitiable because it places the lives and character and happiness of human beings upon the altar of commerce, and proposes to trade them for dollars and cents. Make more drunkards, they say, because more drunkards consume more liquor and more sales increase business. They say that traveling men will not stop here because they can't get drinks at hotel bars. This is an insult to the traveling men, most of whom are not drinking men, and are not enticed to a town by a glass of beer. This is the only way they attempt to show that business has been hurt. The testimony of the great majority of business men says that the town has not been injured in any way and those who say it has, fail to specify in what particular. Everybody knows that business has not been injured, but if it had been, are you going to sell souls and bodies to increase it? Speak up. This is the practical argument of the saloonists. But their argument is illogical. It is in effect, that weakened men make a strong community. Sell all the liquor you can, they say, debase and wreck all the men you can, and the more that are thus treated the stronger in business and finance will be your town.

THE MORALITY ARGUMENT.

They say that the dispensary has not increased morality. They fail to tell how saloons will have the effect of promoting it. But everybody knows that morality has increased and that drinking has decreased. Our streets have been free from open saloons so long, people forget how they look and what effect they have. Numbers of people coming here for the first time since saloons were abolished, have been surprised to observe the change, to note the decency and quiet which reigns on our streets and which exist in no town that has barrooms, and which will vanish when they are reopened here Two gentleman, living on the roads to two mills near town, said that when bars existed, some of the operatives of those mills passed their houses late every Saturday night in a state of drunken rowdiness. Now they never do it. Whiskey is not obtainable after dark. The whole atmosphere is purer and quieter. Not a man with any respect for his common sense will say that the temptations to drink are not less now in this town than they were two years ago. And no man who is not an idiot himself or regards others as such, will say that there is not less drinking when there is less temptation to drink.

All the other towns that have tried the dispensary will keep it, except Rutherfordton, which will displace it in favor of complete prohibition. In Fayetteville, the law has been extended to Cumberland County; in Union County, the dispensary has been endorsed by an overwhelming vote of the entire county. All North Carolina is watching us. Will we deliberately vote back the whiskey influence with all its corruption?

THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina: Generally fair tonight and Thursday; light to fresh north winds.

Highest temperature at Greensboro past twenty-four hours ending eight o'clock this morning 87, lowest 70.

Broad Tires.

Broad tires will benefit property-owners in cities, because pavements they are taxed heavily to construct will not wear out so rapidly. Broad tires will benefit taxpayers, because they are economical. Team owners cut up pavements into mincemeat with the narrow tires of their teams, and then grumble at the expense and inconvenience they are put to by the bad condition of the pavements. When broad tires come into use there will not be so many breakdowns of teams while trying to turn out of street railroad tracks. Then the men and women who use the cars will not be delayed so often as they are now by dismantled coal wagons and the wrecks of other vehicles which meander along the streets in the last stages of decrepitude.

Given broad tires, taxpayers will be willing to go to the expense of better roads. Then the merchants and others who have traffic teams will find their hauling will not cost them so much. the wear and tear of horse-flesh and of teams will be less. But team-owners must not expect to get something for nothing. The world is not run that way. The substitution of broad for narrow tires will make their teams cost a little more. They will, however, speedily get back all that extra money with interest thereon, because of the reduction in operating expenses. Nothing but perverse, unthinking conservatism has kept the men who will be most benefited by wide tires from adopting them years ago.

Pavements.

The people of London have more success with wooden pavements than we do over here. Consequently, two more streets, North Exeter road and Hampden street, which were lately torn up, are now being repaved with wooden pavements, wood having gained the preference over granite and asphalt.

This selection by the London City Engineer of wood over the more common paving materials in use in other large cities has caused some surprise over here, as our own experiments with wood as a paving material have by no means given satisfaction. The chief objection to it is its liabilty to speedy decay. A number of streets were paved with wood in this city, chiefly in the shopping district, within the last two or three years, but the majority of them had to be torn up again and replaced with a more durable paving material.

The report of the City Engineer of London gives some interesting facts about traffic over various pavements According to his report, a horse travelling on a granite pavement may be expected to fall once for every 132 miles travelled, on asphalt once in 191 miles, and on wood once in 446 miles, The injury sustained by the animal is also far less serious from a fall upon wood than upon asphalt or upon granite.

Work in Cuba.

Governor Wood is taking hold of affairs in Cuba in a way which not only astonishes the natives but commands their respect as well, and challenges the admiration of everybody who takes a look at Cuban affairs. Although but a few weeks in office, he has already broken up a number of corrupt rings, has corrected unnamable prison abuses which had grown hoary under Spanish rule, and has created a degree of hope and confidence which a few months ago was considered altogether impossible of achievement. He has only begun, and has a most disheartening task before him, but he has done so much more than anybody else ever essayed to do that there is ground for saying that he is likely, if properly supported, to solve a good many problems concerning Cuba which have long puzzled everybody at all conversant with Cuban affairs.

Learned States.

Illinois leads the United States in learning. There are 13,787 students enrolled in the various colleges and universities of the Sucker State. And, Illinois isn't the first State in point of population in the Union. New York has more people within its boundaries.

New York comes second. The figures are 13,007. And then, after us comes another Eastern State—Pennsylvania. The Keystone institutions hold 11,396 persons who are being familiarized with the higher forms. Ohio is close up. Her record for students of this class is 11,239. And then comes a point for our Southern friends. Tennessee stands fifth. They run to learning down in Dixie. Tennessee has 7,139 students to her credit. Missouri is sixth, with a showing of 6,513.

So much for the higher education. Now try, the same question as applied to the common schools. Where does the greatest percentage of enrolled scholars obtain? You might as well save yourself the trouble of guessing. You would hardly pick it out in a dozen trials. Kansas! Bleeding Kansas! The home of the populist, the cyclone and the corn crop! Considered with regard to its total population, the enrollment in Kansas is really remarkable. The percentage is 27.87, and the figures showing the number of scholars of the public institutions are 370,240.

The West is away ahead of the East in this proposition of public schooling. Following Kansas comes West Virginia, where the number of enrolled scholars is 236,188, which is 27.27 per cent. of the population. And Utah, which we are hurling stones at—Utah, which we consider lost to the saving grace and lots of other useful things—Utah looks after the schooling of its young. The figures show that there are 70,878 scholars, a percentage of 26.75. And then comes Iowa, with a percentage of 26.13, and again Tennessee, where 25.66 per cent. of the population are enrolled scholars. Mississippi is sixth, with a percentage of 25.38 to her credit. Massachusetts has a percentage of only 16.93, and New York isn't much ahead of the Bay State, for its figures are 17.56. Verily, there is more common school education in the West and the South than was dreamed of in the Eastern philosophy.

Not Much Fraud.

In all the vicissitudes of business in the last few years life insurance has enjoyed an immunity from disturbance which has been little short of phenomenal. Everything else has been sufficiently shaken to at times affect its smooth operation at least, and often its commercial standing. There has been no trouble of this kind, however, with life insurance. As a contemporary remarks, "The doings of trusts and combinations, scandals of the market, great business triumphs and still greater business failures, have from time to time the eye and ear of the world, with never a word connected therewith derogatory to life insurance." The 2,000,000 people on whose lives insurance was carried had less reason to worry over the situation, and did worry less, than the same number of investors in anything else outside of United States securities themselves. A better thing could hardly be said for anything in which money is placed, and yet there is occasionally such a thing as fraud even in life insurance.

A Distinction.

A doctor has just announced that cycling, so far from being a wholesome exercise for girls, good for both figure and complexion, actually makes them deformed and ugly! "The lady-cyclist," says this terrible man, "may be identified by her squeaky voice, large, broad, flat hands, coarse skin, wrinkled face, and bloodshot eyes." What a cruel word-picture! But comfort yourself fair reader, by noting that he speaks of the "lady-cyclist," not of the lady who cycles. Such dire results are not likely to happen to the wise person who cycles occasionally for the sake of exercise or convenience; only to the misguided enthusiast who devotes herself to the wheel, and prides herself on her long-distance records.

Courage.

Courage and a good circulation are practically synonymous terms, and no man whose heart is not firmly kept under control can go downstairs in the dark to find a hidden burglar: In times of danger or of emergency, the strong-hearted individual, with a normal pulse rate of 72 beats to the minute, is unconscious of the drop of even 15 beats per minute, and calmly does his duty. But how fares the luckless man whose heart is irritable, or whose normal beat is 55? The loss of 15 beats means absolute prostration, whilst if his heart be easily excited it may be working 120 to the minute, without any power on his part to check it. Either case means cowering down among the bedclothes, oblivious of duty.

The revenues of the country are now extraordinary, in view of the nearly $200,000,000 yielded by the war taxes, yet vast as these revenues are, the pensioners, under existing laws, receive about 25 per cent. of the gross income of the government.

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeiters of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless salves on their own merits, so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve It cures piles and all skin diseases. HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

ORGANIZED A SOCIETY.

"I have a son who is taking a medical course at Tulane," remarked a member of the Board of Trade, "and he has been especially interested in the study of bacteriology. I am sorry to say it has proved a great affliction to the entire family. Our troubles began about two months ago, when he laid aside a few samples of his breakfast and remarked casually that he intended to put them 'under the glass' —meaning his new $125 microscope. Next day he told his mother that we'd have to change our milkman and grocer immediately. He said it was next door to a miracle that any of us were alive and when he gave me the Latin name of the microbes he had discovered I was inclined to agree with him. The idea of absorbing that many syllables at every mouthful was enough to scare anybody, so to be on the safe side we followed his suggestion A few days afterward he saw some fish being delivered at the gate, and immediately hacked off a sample. In less than two hours he rushed down and threw two fine pompano into the slop barrel. 'You've had a narrow escape, father,' he said, when I made a gentle protest, for I am very fond of pompano, broiled. 'If you'd eaten that fish,' he said, 'you'd have been a dead man in a week.' After that we had no peace. He insisted on making what he called a 'superficial investigation' of all pantry supplies. He said he was looking for only three or four of the most deadly forms of bacteria and would reserve the moderately dangerous ones for a future campaign. The result was that he condemned nearly everything we had on hand. Then he wanted to sterilize the kitchen utensils, and posted up a set of sanitary rules and regulations for the guidance of the cook. Fortunately the cook can't read, but the rest of us were being rapidly reduced to starvation, and day befor yesterday I headed a revolt and organized a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Microbes. Everybody in the house joined except my son, and I gave him solemn warning that if I ever caught him molesting any bacilli on the premises I would cut him off with a microscope. Since then we have gorged ourselves with impunity and microbes and gained 26 pounds—grand total. My son looks on sadly and says he washes his hands of the consequences. I told him he could wash his hands as much as he blamed pleased, but he mustn't wash any more skillets—especially with germicide fluids. I have hopes he will survive until Mardi Gras."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

OPIUM SMOKERS IN CHINA.

In Formosa One Person in Fifteen Uses the Drug.

To learn the actual number of opium smokers is impossible, but we know the amount of the foreign import of this drug, and the native confessions of reformed opium smokers tell us precisely the amount of opium required to pass the yin, or craving. It is one-fifth of an ounce daily. An ounce or liang is consumed in five days and a catty suffices for eighty days. Four catties are enough for 320 days, and another half catty will carry the user to the end of a year with comfort. A picul is enough then for only twenty-two persons and 50,000 piculs is sufficient for not more than 1,100,000 persons. The law of compulsion in the smoker is just as imperious for native opium as for foreign. It is a matter of great interest to know the extent of the evil.

In regard to Szechuen, that very populous and wealthy province, Mr. Schjoth, in the Trade Report for 1898, informs us that Szechuen produces 100,000 piculs of opium, and the cultivation is always increasing. At Chungching, where he is commissioner, he is told that 30,000 piculs suffice for consumption in the province and that 65,000 piculs are exported. We may conclude that the smokers of that province cannot be less than 660,000. Since the population is 67,000,000, the number of smokers is one in a hundred. In Shensi one in 140 smokes, in Formosa one in fifteen is the proportion in cities, where the people are sunk to the lowest point of degradation and this is the largest proportion yet known of opium smokers as compared with the general population.—Shanghi Mercury.

How Much Sleep.

The statistics and diagrams of sleep in the Sunday Post-Dispatch are interesting as showing the influence of occupation upon habit. The American naval officer gets less sleep on the average than anyone else. It is with him a matter of regulation, but he gets used to his scant allowance and seems to thrive under it. He sleeps six hours in the twenty-four. The actor sleeps ten, while the army officer is allowed eight hours. There are two extreme opinions on the subject of sleep. One that men do not sleep enough, and the other that they sleep too much. Probably the truth is that a trnnquil and evenly balanced mind not given to worry, dissipation or needless excitement needs less sleep than the fussy man who indulges in these respectable and unrespectable vices. It is possible to rest even when in the midst of work. But it requires much toil and self-control to achieve such a power of rest.

Municipal Novelty.

There is a decidely humorous side which occasionally comes to light in connection with the undertakings of municipal corporations but the action of the enterprising city fathers of a small Hungarian town is certainly unique. The Mayor and the whole Town Council, consisting of eight members, formed themselves into a band of forgers and carried on a thriving business in the Town Hall manufacturing paper notes current in Austria, which they circulated pretty extensively. A workshop, well fitted with the necessary implements, was fixed up a cellar of the Town Hall, and they actually set policemen to guard the door while they were at work. This remarkable state of affairs existed for a couple of years, when the business was detected, the Mayor and councillors fighting like profesional brigands upon being arrested.—Cin. Enquirer.

Argentina seems to have the largest "rocking-stone" yet discovered. It is situated on the slope of the mountain of Tandil, in the southern part of the province, and measures 90 feet long by 18 feet broad, and is 24 feet high. Its bulk is 5,000 cubic feet and it weighs at least 25 tons. Nevertheless, it is so beautifully poised that a single person can set it rocking. When the wind blows from the southwest, the stone, which is pyramidal in form sways to and fro on its foundation ilke the branches of a tree.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

WHITE SUPREMACY TICKET.

HOW TRUE DEMOCRATS WILL VOTE

The Contest of Vital Importance to the White People Drawing to a Close--Efforts Will be Made to Elect Republicans by Trading and Other Dirty Work--Democrats Should be on Guard and See That Their Ticket Receives the Party's Full Strength--Give One Day to the Cause of Good Government and Decency.

Twenty-four hours more and the political battle which has been waged in North Carolina with such intense earnestness for the past few months, and which is claiming the attention of the entire country, will have ended. The race is almost run. Tomorrow evening the contestants will have passed under the wire and the prizes will have been won. Only a few hours remain in which to work for favorites, but effective work may be done, even in these few hours.

Let Democrats remember that, while victory is practically assured, it is necessary that the full strength be polled. Every Democrat should consider it his duty to see that every other Democrat goes to the polls and votes for the amendment and the straight Democratic ticket, from governor to township constable. When voting remember that it is not men but principles for which Democratic ballots are deposited.

It is a well known and undisputed fact that the Republicans are putting forth every effort to elect a portion of their ticket by means fair or foul. It is not denied that Democrats have been approached with a proposition looking to an arrangement by which a part of the Republican legislative ticket might be elected by swapping votes. The Republicans have given up hope of electing their county ticket and are directing their energies toward securing the election of one or more of their legislative candidates. They would be satisfied with the election of the Senator only.

Democrats should be on guard and thwart any dirty work that may be attempted. Remember that a vote cast against a Democratic candidate for the Legislature is a vote for negro rule and the return of North Carolina's worst enemy, Marion Butler, to the United States Senate. The election is the most important ever held in North Carolina, and all true Democrats will vote the following ticket, without a single omission:

FOR SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

Governor:
CHARLES B. AYCOCK,
Wayne County.

Lieutenant-Governor:
WILFRED D. TURNER,
Iredell County.

Secretary of State:
J. BRYAN GRIMES,
Pitt County.

SAMUEL L. RODGERS,
Macon County.

Judge of the Superior Court of the Tenth Judicial District:
WILLIAM B. COUNCILL,
Watauga County.

Judge of the Superior Court of the Twelfth Judicial District:
FREDERICK MOORE,
Buncombe County.

Senator—21st Senatorial District:
JAMES D. GLENN.

Members of House of Representatives:
THOMAS EARLY WHITAKER,
WESCOTT ROBERSON.

Sheriff:
JAMES F. JORDAN.

Register of Deeds:
ABEL G. KIRKMAN.

Treasurer:
GORDENTIA H. McKINNEY.

Coroner:
JAMES PINKNEY TURNER.

Surveyor:
GEORGE W. PRITCHETT.

County Commissioners of Guilford County:
WILLIAM H. RAGAN,
WILLIAM C. TUCKER,
WILLIAM H. RANKIN.

Still Greater July Clearance Reductions

This sale was a pronounced success from the start. The people evidenced their appreciation and confidence by coming, in great throngs to partake of the rare offerings. We've made history with this sale—written the first page of a new epoch in modern merchandising. Competitors stand aghast at our wholesale reductions. Better and better grow the assortments, lower and lower the prices, till we begin the third week of this CLEARANCE SALE with a tumultuous rush, and slashing of prices the like of which has never been known by any of Greensboro's buying public. We advise early shopping.

FOR MORAL SUPREMACY.

Elsewhere is given the ticket which believers in white supremacy will tomorrow deposit in the ballot box. Here is given the ticket that belivers in moral supremacy will deposit:

FOR DISPENSARY

There is no turning or twisting or quibbling that can change or palliate the bare-face fact that whoever puts any other than this ticket in the primary box, puts in one for the reopening of saloons and the extension of the liquor traffic. Men of Greensboro should ponder carefully and long before they put in any other ticket, for such other means the reestablishment of whiskey influence in our town, and the subversion of the wishes of the temperance people, the majority of the church people, and a majority of that class of people that are the backbone of a community. Mind, now, we are not saying that there are no moral people or honest people or good people on the other side. Rather we make this appeal to such of these as may be there. Such men should ask themselves what good can come from the re-opening of bars in this town; how can it promote temperance, morality, decency and the welfare of the community? What are you to gain by arraigning yourselves against a movement backed by the earnest and consecrated ministers and teachers and women of the town, and supported by a majority of the business people, and voting as the saloon men wish you to vote? From whom are you taking your orders? Whom will you please by your vote for the reopening of saloons? The liquor leagues, the saloonists, the North Carolina Liquor Dealers Association, all the whiskey interests, will pat you on the back and tell you that you have done well in voting against the dispensary. Do you want to gain their approbation?
